

Vulnerable Children and Adults Results Team Tollgate #2

May 25, 2004

Results Team

- Uma Ahluwalia
- Deborah Bingaman
- Dennis Braddock
- Tim Brown
- Kari Burrell
- Jenny Hamilton
- Wayne Kawakami
- John King
- Kathy Leitch
- Stan Marshburn
- Nancy Ousley
- Marcia Riggers

3A. What are high-level purchase strategies?

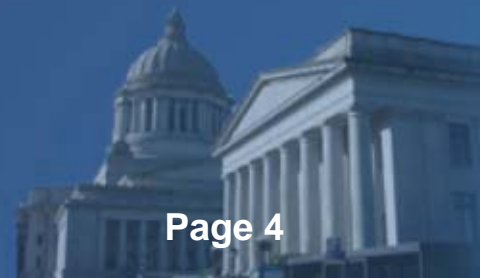

- Economic self-sufficiency –
 - Ensure availability of living wage jobs
 - Ensure adequate job preparation
 - Remove barriers to job preparation
 - Provide job retention supports
 - Provide assistance in securing benefits/income supports
 - Provide emergency temporary supports for those in crisis
- Health
 - Promote healthy personal behaviors
 - Promote adequate supply of quality providers
 - Expand access to health insurance
 - Provide 0-3 disability early intervention services
 - Promote early intervention/least restrictive services
 - Provide health crisis intervention services

3A. High-level purchase strategies continued...

- Safety
 - Regulate service providers
 - Provide institutional discharge planning services
 - Prevent/intervene to end homelessness
 - Prevent/intervene to end abuse/neglect/exploitation
- Stability
 - Promote community social infrastructure
 - Ensure access to adequate nutrition
 - Ensure access to safe, affordable housing
 - Ensure access to stable employment/family income
 - Ensure access to basic health care services
 - Promote consistent caregiving
 - Ensure access to affordable quality child care
 - Secure permanent placement for children who cannot live with their parents

3A. High-level purchase strategies continued...

- Overarching administrative strategies
 - Increase intra- and cross-system coordination
 - Develop data driven decision support systems
 - Perform quality assurance of purchase/provided services
 - Promote use of research or evidence-based best practices
 - Reduce tort liability exposure

3B. What are the key areas in which the state should take action (and how)?

- #1 – Provide a basic safety net for vulnerable children and adults
 - Emergency food supports
 - Emergency/temporary housing
 - Emergency/temporary cash grants
 - Health crisis intervention services (including institutional services)
 - Interventions to end abuse/neglect/exploitation of children and vulnerable adults

3B. Key areas in which the state should take action continued...

- #2 Invest strategically in early intervention services to at-risk populations to reduce the need for intervention
 - Evaluate funding distributions among strategies to determine the most effective mix of services
 - Invest in services/activities that are outcome-based
 - Serve clients in most appropriate, least restrictive quality care settings
 - Increase effective prevention through coordination with result areas that affect/support the state's social services system
 - Education
 - Health care
 - Workforce development
 - Public safety
 - Support the development of capacity in communities

POG 2 KEY INTERDEPENDENT FACTORS

BALANCING STRATEGY TRADE-OFFS

